

Key LV2 BB2 / H

Text 1:

- 1- An autobiography extracted from My Early Life, Winston Churchill
- 2- 1
- 3- 2 Useless "in which I had hardly ever been asked to learn anything which seemed of the slightest use or interest, or allowed to play any game which was amusing"
4Depressing, "considerably discouraged by my school days", " it is not pleasant to feel oneself so completely outclassed and left behind at the very beginning of the race."
- 4- Most of his schoolmates enjoyed school and found their place either academically or physically by doing well in class or at sport.
- 5- A bricklayer's mate would be outside, learning a trade and having a taste of the world of work from a young age. He would start earning his own money and not be dependent on others for his income. He would be able to succeed in something worthwhile and useful in society, and no longer be outclassed by his peers.
- 6- He appreciated his comments because Mr Wellton believed in him. He had faith in him and believed he would succeed in life.

Text 2:

- 7- The author was the prime minister.
- 8- WW2
- 9- 3 and 4
- 10- Hopeful 1 "I feel sure that our cause will not be suffered to fail among men" /
Realistic 3 "We have before us many, many long months of struggle and of suffering."
- 11- In the first text, Churchill remembers his education. He thinks he was an underachiever and would have done better in a manual instead of continuing his studies. In the second text, we see how his education allowed him to rise in society to the highest position. Over time, he remains humble and honest. He expresses himself in a straight-forward manner.
