A Day in the Life of a Policeman

Policemen in the US and the UK work 48 hours and then have 24 hours off. Policeman Jim Roberts tells us about his routine.

07:45: I arrive at the station.

8:07: The captain calls our names.

8:15: I work with a colleague like Doug. First, we check our equipment.

9:30: The police station is our home for 48 hours. We do the housework and tidy the rooms. We clean the station, make our beds, clean the floors and showers, wash our uniforms and empty the rubbish bins. We've got 5 rubbish bins in the station.

10:10: We do exercises in the gym.

11:50: We get ready for lunch. I don't cook but I go shopping with Doug. The police station pays for the food!

12:35: We have lunch.

1:20: We do different things in the afternoon. I give first aid classes. Doug visits schools and talks about fire safety.

5:00: Doug arrives at the station and we check the equipment again. Then we prepare the dinner.

5:55: We have dinner and then we do the dishes, read or watch TV. Doug plays chess in the evening.

12:00: We go to bed and when we wake up, we go home.

This is a normal day without emergency calls, fires or accidents.
